The action of the Commissioners Court in refusing the proposed plan of expenditure for the eradication of the fever tick among cattle made by the representative of the commission, will meet the approval of the people. While it is true that more than any other adverse factor praying upon the livestock interest of the country, the fever tick has been disasterous, but should not follow as necessary or right that the public treasury should be drained of funds to carry on this work. The livestock industry is vital to the country but so are other industries. If the eradication of the cattle fever tick had not carried us to such enormous financial outlays with so little hope of permanent relief, the disposition would have been to carry on the work with any degree of economic safety. The conclusion of the legislature and of the commissioners court well sustains a warning issued by County Auditor Giles L. Avriett, more than three years ago, when he voiced a protest against the expenditure and foretold the ultimate financial plight of the county if no relief could be had from this excessive drain upon the public funds. It is not against the live stock industry to protect county responsibility for tick work but it is decidedly for the interest of the whole people to say that county funds be safeguarded against an expenditure that is not only financially ruinous but lacking in hope of permanent results.

The city should not lose the advantage it has in the maintenance clause of the paving contract. So far no effort has been made to repair the paving in the single place it has given away. The contract should be enforced .The cotract is ustained by a $40,000 bond and the maintenance clause calls for a five year upkeep of the streets. To lose that advantage would be an inexcusable neglect of the public welfare whether caused by failure to enforce the contract or by forfeiture of the advantage the city has in the securities issued for that purpose.

Let us hope that the council will not arbitrarily issue six and a quarter per cent warrants running for fifteen years and in amount exceeding $100,000 thus imposing a staggering burden by fixed maturities and pledging the income for a long period. That is the economic side of the question. The other side of the question is more vital, involving a principle of government that is sacred to all Democrats. That side is the voice of the people. They have said be their ballot they do not want the city to sell bonds or securities. The late election was a protest against further expenditure either in principal or added interest costs, and further the people are opposed to an issue of warrants. They want the city financed on the present tax rate and it would minimize the ballot as a factor in government if public opinion, thereby expressed, is disregarded. We trust no one will question the good faith and intention of the coucil to administer the affairs of the city along sane and economic lines, and we believe there has been no such sentiment. But it would be another matter entirely if after the election the plans of the council, as submitted, are carried out against the will of the people.

Whether the council sees fit to do so is a matter for the judgment of that body alone, but the fact is inescapable that expenditures must be cut, useless offices abolished when found useless ,and a system of purchase established to economize on competative bids for supplies, centralizing responsibility for buying and in this way the requirements of the city restricted to bare necessities. If a survey were made by a competent economic engineer, no doubt it could be shown that the city might get along on less not because there is willful economic waste but because there has been lack of time to be expended for the welfare of the city. Economy in interest rates paid by the city is desirable and would save the city a good sum each year and we believe there should be a voluntary reduction of the rates of interest on the part of those holding the paper, if consistent with right and sustained by genuine desire to save the city from added expenditure. The school should be made independent of the city; should bear its own tax burdens and responsibilities and the city left unrestricted in its income for municipal purposes, when the time comes for the people to authorize such divorce of government function.

Dr. G. B. Taylor Is Chosen Vice President State Medical Association

At the State Medical Association in Austin, Texas, last week Dr. G B. Taylor of Cameron was elected first vice president of the Association This unsolicited honor comes to Dr Taylor in recognition of faithful and meritorious service in the association as he never failed to attend a meeting of that body since he became a member of the medical profession. His Milam County friends are proud of the honor that has come to Dr. Taylor and hope that he may occupy a yet higher office in the State Medical Asgociation. Dr. Taylor is a successful physician and is a careful man of affairs who has lived in Cameron since 1902. He has ever been active in movements that affect the welfare of the community. He is a member of the Baptist Church and is educating his only son at Baylor University, the leading Baptist Institution of Texas.

Many important historical events have happened in the month of April and the first significant date of Dr. Taylor was his birthday, April 6, 1875 He was born at the old farm home near Moffatt, Bell county, Texas. His parents were John Larkin and Mary Jane Taylor. His father, who is still living, aged 86, is a Baptist preacher of the pioneer type. In Doctor Taylor's youth the Taylor family was large and the preacher's salary was meager so as a boy he worked on the farm to help life the debt that rested on the home. Only after the farm was fully paid for did Dr. Taylor, then an eighteen year old youth leave home to secure an education for which he felt great need but which his father was unable to help him to secure. He went to Troy, Texas, where he spent two years in high school living in the home of his cousin, Dr. A. L. Taylor, now of Brownwood, working for him to pay for his board and washing. Later he went to Baylor University where he worked in many ways to

ESCAPES JAIL HERE BUT CAUGHT IN POLK COUNTY

LEAVES LETTER TO SHERIFF SAYING HE WOULD RETURN SOME TIME.

Bryan Walker, awaiting trial in Milam county, for participation in the burglaries of Thorndale stores five years ago, escaped from the jail Friday night but was captured by Sheriff L. L. Blaylock at Corrigan in Polk county.

Walker sawed himself to liberty by means of steel saws smuggled to him by unknown parties and escaped in the darkness of the night Friday.

A woman said to be his wife, was taken with him at Corrigan. They were in a Ford coupe and had covered much of the distance to the Arkansas line when captured on information furnished by Sheriff Blaylock to officers in Polk county.

Walker left a letter addressed to Sheriff Blaylock in which he thanked the sheriff for his kind treatment and many courtesies. He said he had resolved to live a better life but that it seemed too hard and it now appears useless.

Walker was arrested in a five year man hunt in which the relentless Milam county sheriff kept up the chase. The trial dots over a wide area of the country and even goes to Old Mexico. Walker was arrested in Lubbock on information furnished by Sheriff Blaylock and was returned to Cameron for trial where he is under indictment for participation in the burglary of Thorndale stores five years ago.

Sheriff Blaylock will return the prisoner here at once and the trial will proceed with as much haste as possible.

Suspicions are well founded that a plot to aid in the escape of Walker has existed for some time. The woman, said to be his wife was a frequent visitor at Cameron and during the last week or more has stayed about the jail yard often. She is thought to have headed the plot to have Walker escape. She was with him when arrested and is thought to have furnished the car for the dash for liberty.

Every precaution has been taken by the sheriff to safeguard the prisoner. His work in the recapture of Walker is typical of the relentless sheriff who finds little time to idle when duty calls. More that $60 was spent for telegrams Saturday and Saturday night. Blaylock was determined to catch his man and caught him as eh always does when he goes after them.

Hats Off To Cameron Firemen at Convention

BY J. B. WHITE.

The vanguard of five automobiles carrying Cameron firemen to the convention at Cisco reached here at Four o'clock Monday afternoon after a long ride over miserable roads. Getting out of Meredian long before noon the caravan led by Capt. Joe Lindsey and assistant Chief Roy Weems missed the trail and ran through Walnut Springs before it was discovered we were headed for North Texas. A painful 30 miles across the country with bad roads threw the vanguard into Hico at about noon where lunch was had. Hitting the main trail at Hico the cars passed on to Dublin and DeLeon then to Eastland and Cisco. Record time was made and but for the error at Meredian the crack Cameron team would have minced eats in this beautiful West Texas city shortly after noon.

"Cameron The Friedly City" is proclaimed today in Cisco. The red letters of this greeting to the world is being read by thousands who pack the streets and crowd the hotel lobbies. The Cameron team known throughout the state for its prowess is welcomed with acclaim. Monday night the advance of delegates arrived. Cameron firemen were given welcome upon every hand. This morning (Tuesday) before the red sun had tinged the east with its gorgeous hues and while the city slept from its night of wild joy the racing team under Lindsey and Weems slipped quetly out of their beds and went to the track. The team looks sure for the money. They clipped it off in good time, in fact the winged feet of Cameron's own tripped over the distance under time that has won for many a team. Capt. Lindsey smiled with satisfaction as he came in. The boys felt vigerous after the run and the good night of rest. Cameron is feared among all the racing teams. The team that wins will have to beat Cameron. At McKinney last year Cameron won first money. The year prior to that at San Marcos the team won everything. Again at Brownwood the team carried off the cups.

Cisco is agog today. "Out where the West Begins" is the way Fort Worth puts it. This is the real west although some distance from the cap rocks and the staked plains. The town is filled with people. Cowboys in flaming red shirts with spurs dangling from booted heels are riding herd on the town. Mixed with the western spirit that comes to towns on Rodeo day is the reckless daring volunteer firemen. The firemen celebrate just like they fight, driving hard and hell bent for results. It is hard to decide between them and the sun tanned men of the plains who set a bronc with winning grace, but the firemen predominate with their jaunty caps and brass buttons and the honors go to them. It is going to be a great convention. Thousands of firemen in their blue uniforms have stormed the town. The Chamber of Commerce has arranged a great program. Something doing every minute of the day.

Crossing the country from Cameron to Cisco one sees much of Texas that has been under the spell of progress for the past decade. Every since oil was found in paying quantities West of the Bosque and up to Eastland county the country has been developing at rapid rate. Cisco is the gem of this country, a town of 12,000 souls and with more paved streets than any town in Texas of its size. There is a brick road running 35 miles distance from the city limits. Ten miles between Cisco and Eastland a brick road has been laid. Recently a fire truck from Cisco went to Eastland and in 13 minutes the firemen were spraying water on the flames. Cisco has 14 hotels and every accommodation possible for the convention. Rain has fallen heavily over this section of Texas. From Cameron on West the rainfall has in-

People Stirred and Idols of Sin Are Smashed By Powerful Pulpit Warrior

EVANGELIST HUB DeLAY.

The people of Cameron are showing much interest in the campaign for righteousness, now in its third week, being conducted by the unique evangelist, Hub DeLay, assisted by E. W. Pfaffenberger, soloist and choir director. Capacity congregations have assembled in the Methodist church to hear this evangelist of national reputation who preaches plain truth supported by Holy writ. They return again and again because his manner of presenting truth is "entirely different from the usual."

The forceful presentation of God's truths, the pipe organ music, the great choir, the solos by Pfaffenberger, all combine to form an almost irresistable attraction to those who are favorable to religious truth. The individuality and originality of the evangelistic methods make this meeting one never to be forgotten by those who have never yet given serious thought to spiritual things. Members of all denominations are seen at each service while the meeting is held in the Methodist Church the revival campaign is for all who will help to make Cameron a righteous town.

The Evangelist, not Revered or Doctor but just plain "Hub DeLay" does not urge you to join the church but urges repentance for sins and faith in Christ. He preaches a practical religious "Be honest and pay your debts" is a favorite formula with him.

Hub DeLay has somewhere back in his ancestry a Hugenot strain—Protestant French blood as his name DeLay will attest. From that ancestry he gets the imagination that illumes and vivifies his sermons. Here, too, he gets his strong business sense which has been cultivated in his actual business life. DeLay's face has the Irish contour—it is a plain Irish face. From the Celtic Strain comes the humor that often convulses his audiences in laughter after his imagination and word pictures have carried his listeners to a feeling of sorrow and sympathy. Serious as is his mission and his earnestness, yet through it all there runs the saving grace of humor that appeals to all mankind. His Irish temperment is exemplified in his figthing posture, that always accompanies his trade against a dead church or some sin. There is minicry too, followed often by a short quick blow that leaves the imaginary embodiment of the evil thing lying lifeless upon the platform. He says he is not a Modernist but believes the whole Bible from "Kiver to Kiver." One of his most impressive sermons has been on the experiences of Jonah. A favorite song is "Old Time Religion" and one verse which he insists that all sing runs thus:

"It makes the Kuklux love the Anti's,
It makes the Anti's love the Kuklux
And its good enough for me."

Following his wonderful "mystery sermon" on last Sunday one hundred and eighty four men and women of several churches in Cameron pledged themselves to tithing.

A men's service held on Sunday afternoon resulted in forty men pledging themselves to renewed Christian service.

Up to Tuesday evening of this week there had been more than fifty reclaimations and reconsecrations.

On Sunday morning May 17, 1925, at eleven o'clock the text used will be "Whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek turn to him the other also. And if any man shall sue thee at law and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile go with him twain."

SAYS KILTS FOR MEN WILL IMPROVE HEALTH.

York, England, May 6.—Men should wear kilts and low-necked blouses, if they would enjoy good health, according to Dr. Percy Hall, a prominent Hull physician.

Addressing the York Rotary Club, he declared that women, by their adoption of abbreviated skirts, silk stockings and low-necked blouses, allowed the maximum of light and fresh air to reach their bodies, and benefited immensely thereby.

An open-necked shirt-blouse and a kilt would be of benefit to men if they could survive the ordeal, he maintained.

Mrs. John Skaggs, residing near Lanes Prairie, Mo., on the Ozark Trail, says: "I have taken Black-Draught for a number of years, about fifteen, and it is about the only purgative medicine I ever take. It is the only kind that I've found that doesn't hurt me.

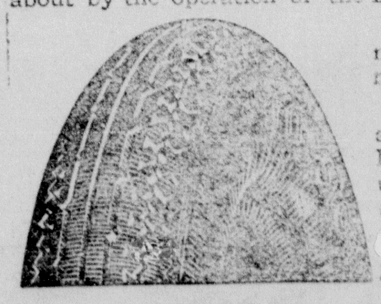
No Increase in the Price of Firestone FULL-SIZE GUM-DIPPED BALLOONS

The extra quality built in by the extra process of Gum-Dipping, the economy of these wonderful tires and the added mileage obtained from them during the past two years, has created such a large demand that over 75% of Firestone's mammoth production is now Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords.

This has greatly increased the total sales volume and the huge Firestone factories are now working on a 24-hour schedule to supply the demand.

This large volume, produced under the most economical tire manufacturing methods, permits Firestone to sell these extra-process Full-Size Balloons at no extra cost to car owners. And this in the face of greatly advanced cost for crude rubber brought about by the operation of the British Rubber Restriction Act.



Gum-Dipping means longer mileage—greater economy—at no extra cost to you!

Enjoy the safety, economy and comfort of Balloon Gum-Dipped Cords this summer. Let us equip your car now at low cost—with liberal allowance for your old tires.

Leadership — and why

Graham Brothers impressive advance to first position in the 1½ ton truck field, and second in the 1 ton and the 1½ ton fields combined—during the first quarter of 1925—is explained by four vital reasons:

1. Distinct price advantage.
2. Pronounced quality advantage.
3. Dodge Brothers engine.
4. Substantial character of Dodge Brothers dealer organization.

Ordinary logic demands that these facts receive your immediate consideration if you have any need whatever for a truck.

Women Face Greater Problem Than Men Governor Ferguson Tells the Women Adsters

"Women have a greater problem than the men have," Governor Miriam A. Ferguson told the 225 women gathered Sunday evening at the University Club as guests of the Houston Woman's Advertising Clubs. Governor Ferguson and Judge Hortense Ward were the two principal speakers on the program. Their addresses struck the same keynote.

"There is no excuse for woman in the business world unless she is going to stay a woman there," the governor went on to say. "Wherever you find the successful business woman, you find a woman who has taken her womanly way along with her into the business world."

"The supreme need of the world today is clear thinking in the part of the business woman," said Judge Ward. "Too many of us are unwilling to be unpopular enough to back up our convictions. The need which women can fill in the world is the teaching and practice of an international good will and understanding based on woman's belief in a higher ideal and a finer principle.

"The men like us, and will stand right up in meeting and say they can not get along without us. They are only surprised when we show that we can get along without them," said the governor.

"Part of woman's work today is to remove the inferiority complex that men have about women working and doing it as well as they can," said Judge Ward.

"I come before you as a fellow pioneer," said the governor.

"We really can not blame the men; they have had their own way so long and we have cheered them so resoundingly that we have only ourselves to blame. And after all, they are a side issue in our future. They have given us our chance; now it is time for us to prove that all our talk about that chance was not just talk. We have a serious business before us.

"I believe that women may do great things for the business world. It is an old thing to talk of woman's intuition and her keen grasp on the little things of life. Yet wherever you find a successful woman, you find a woman who has taken her womanly ways along with her into her business world; a woman who has solved her problems with her heart as well as her head; a woman who has not allowed maudlin sentiment to over-balance her belief in kindliness and justice and fair play." The militant suffragists were the great advertisers of woman's rights" Judge Ward said. "All the stories of right and justice and demand for fair play which the early suffragists made were buried on the inside of the newspapers pages. But when Mrs. Pankhurst threw rocks at a speaker and when her daughter went to jail and on a hunger strike, the newspapers put it on front page and gave us all the advertising we wanted. And the advertising paid us—we got the vote and equal rights all over the world.

"A part of the work before women today is to remove the inferiority complex that men have for us.

"The problem of the women today is not peace at any price. It is a peace that will accord good will and understanding to all the nations of the world. It is futile for us to say that there is no cause for which man should go to war. It is for us to teach and to build from babyhood to manhood among all the people of this nation the ideal that all the people on this earth are God's children."

The dinner was presided over by Mrs. Edith Axtell, president of the Houston Advertising Clubs. Mrs. Guy E. Browne, president of the Houston Federation of Woman's Clubs, was toastmaster. Music was furnished by the Kiwanis Glee Club and by Miss Elva Kalb, soprano.

Following the addresses of welcome from the governor and the Houston women, Mrs. Bernice Blackwood, chairman of the Women's Federation of Advertising Clubs, responded. An invitation was extended by the Chicago women for all delegates to attend a breakfast at the Rice Hotel Monday morning.

FRANK McCALLA.

Fred Thompson received a telegram on Thursday conveying the sad news that his uncle, Frank McCalla, died that day in Harlengen, Texas, from a paralytic stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. McCalla spent some weeks with Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Meta T. McCown this spring following the funeral of Miss Margaret McCalla. Later they went to Rockdale and then to Harlingen where death overtook him on Thursday. He was buried at Harlingen on Friday afternoon.

For many years Mr. McCalla lived in Rockdale and served for a long period as City secretary and treasurer. His courtesy and Christian character commanded the respect and confidence of all who knew him. He was for many years an elder in the Rockdale Presbyterian church.

He was married many years ago in Rockdale to Miss Julia Robinson. His wife and the following three children survive him: Julian F. McCalla, Comanche; Mrs. Otis Lassiter of Big Lake; Mrs. Oscar Joynes of Harlingen, from whose home his funeral occurred on Friday.

J. D. DOBBINS

Cameron Texas

Under the Capitol Dome

By J. G. Burr, Austin, Texas.

What shall we eat and wherewithal shall we be clothed occupies the attention of most of us, and cotton clothing will be most available if a certain prediction comes true that 80 per cent of Texas soil intended for corn is planted to cotton on account of the late rains. Added to this the present supply of cotton is far greater than at this time last year. The only outlet will be an extension of the cotton market thru improved conditions in Europe, the lengthening of woman's skirts and the amplification of pants. Cotton growers should cultivate closer relations with the makers of fashions. Still, there is the hope that production in other sections will be average or even less than usual, or that prosperous times will create an extra demand for wearing apparel. The writer pledges himself to buy an extra cotton suit if he can find the price.

ONIONS.

The onion plays no popular part in society, which is largely based on clothes, but despite its little esteem as an edible in social circles the growers of south Texas are finding a good market for the crop now being harvested ,according to the agricultural department figures. About mid April the market broke down to ninety cents a crate but delayed shipments brought the market back to as high as $1.60 for the best grades. Graowers got together and steadied the market. Cotton producers can do likewise.

THE RANGERS.

The constitutionality of the Texas ranger law has been upheld by the supreme court and the injunction by the San Antonio court has been dissolved. The ranger force is again functioning and some of them are in Galveston to protect oil interests said to be meaced by the radical labor element.

AN ILL WIND BLEW SOMEBODY GOOD.

In the haste of the legislature in amending the law for the purpose of turning University funds into available building funds, certain oil royalties which had been going to the public school fund were accidentally turned into the game fund, the figures running annually towards half a million dollars. Comptroller Terrell has refused to place the money in the game fund pending an order from the attorney general who has declared the law invalid in respect to the University monies.

THE VALUE OF GAME.

At least two million dollars worth of game was killed in Texas the past hunting season, according to an estimate of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission based on meagre reports of hunters who filled out and returned the coupon on the hunting license which calls for a report of game killed by the hunter. Naturally those made reports who were interested in game work while game hogs are in the unreported class.

Only 160 reports were sent in which totalled as follows: 65 deer, 37 turkey, 4198 quail, 4473 dove, 4395 duck, 168 geese, 54 prairie chicken, 33 plover, 478 squirrels, 8 javelin hogs, and one polecat. Nearly 60,000 hunting licenses were sold for out-of-county huting but arms manufacturers estimate that there are 350,000 hunters. From a check by deputies it is estimated that around 8,000 deer were killed, one half of one per cent of which were reported. If ducks, geese, quail and dove killed were reported in the same ration, the total season bag was approximately three and one half million birds, or an average of ten birds of all kinds for 350,000 hunters. Besides this the number of rabbits killed is a very consireable item.

In view of the fact that deer hunters would be more apt to report their kill than would hunters of small game, it is more than likely that the ratio of birds slain would be far greater than the estimate which at best is only a minimum of the actual bag. One man reported killing 300 quail; another 650 ducks, which still another said he got the limit on ducks. The worth of game can not be based on its market value as meat, if it could be sold, except as its use as food may result in the saving of other commodities; its far greater worth must be estimated as an asset to public recreation and health, it was pointed out by Commissioner Hubby.

OYSTERS.

Galveston oyster production the season closed was around 40,000 barrels, an increase of 28,000 barrels over the previous year, is the statement of T. E .Hubby, Game Commissioner. This increase of 230 per cent is a decided advance over the increase of 50 per cent of the year before and is due largely to the working of abandoned reefs where the oysters had become overcrowded, dwarfed and unsuitable for market. But while too small, for the market, they were proper size for canning and were utilized in that way until the reefs were torn up sufficiently for mature growth. The reefs thus broken up were said to producing marketable oysters within three months. There are 75 reefs in Galveston Bay, the deputies assert and of the old ones only two were worked the past season.

A continuance of this practice in the future with proper mixture of salt and fresh water sreuld place Galveston among the leading oyster ports of the gulf. This will depend largely on the circulation of salt water. The high production of this season passed that of 1902 when Galveston output was 38,000 barrels, the limited salt water circulation being balanced by a corresponding shortage of fresh water due to the drouth. The fresh water of nomal seasons will make it imperative to provide more inlet for salt water if the present production is to be maintained, is the belief of Mr. Hubby. More canneries along the coast are essential to proper oyster development and between the oyster and the shrimp there need be no idle time for the canner Mr. Hubby said.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Cameron Folks.

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills— and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Cameron resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Mrs. O. C. Wilson, 824 Washington St., says: "My back ached and at times it was so lame I felt as though I had been beaten. Bending or stooping sent sharp, shooting pains through the small of my back and it seemed impossible for me to straighten. Spells of dizziness often came over me and my kidneys acted often. Nights found me worn out and irritable and often my feet were swollen. After using Doan's Pills from the New Cameron Drug Co., my kidney trouble was ended."

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

D. G. B. Taylor Chosen V. President Medical Association

provide his own books, clothes and tuition.

After a short period spent in Baylor University he was enabled to borrow enough money to begin his medical studies in the Memphis, Tennessee Medical College. He worked during summers to enable him to continue his studies there for three years.

He came to Milam county to practice medicine, first locating near Marlow where he boarded in the homes of the people and made many friends in the community. In 1900 be located in Burlington where he met and married Miss Ida Looney, July 6, 1901. His wife is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Ike Looney of Ben Arnold. Her parents were prominent and prosperous people, and her father later represented the people of Milam county in the State Legislature.

Shortly after their marriage Dr. and Mrs. Taylor moved to Cameron where they have since resided. Their only son, Jack was born here June 6, 1902. The Doctor has studied to provide for his only son the opportunities he so much desired in his own youth but could only secure by the hardest labor. His son has graduated from the Yoe High School in Cameron and has attended Baylor University for two years. He has acquired fame in athletic circles as a discus thrower having made as a High School boy the second highest record in the United States in Chicago where students of thirty states competed. He has recently won the conference record in the Southern Intercollegiate contests and will doubtless win other laurels.

Dr. Taylor has continued his medical Studies since graduation. Every year since 1907, he has taken Post Graduate work in Chicago and New York. This year he contemplates a course in Chicago and a summer term in Mayo Brothers Clinic in Rochester, Minn. He specializes in treatment of the eye, ear, nose and throat and his office and Hospital in Cameron contain all the latest devices, fixtures and equipment for successfully treating disease pertaining to these organs .

A late addition to his equipment is a machine for administering chlorine gas, recently declared beneficial in treatment of colds and bronchitis.

For fifteen years Dr. Taylor has been the local medical adviser of both the Santa Fe and S. A. & A. P. R'ys in Cameron and vicinity.

He has been honored locally by the medical fraternity, having served as President of the Milam County Medical Association and is at present, and has been for six years, its secretary and treasurer.

Hats Off To Cameron Firemen at Convention

creased. Roads are muddy in places but on the whole are not bad.

The convention proper opened at ten o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. Mayor J. M. Williamson welcomed the delegates to the city and the town was turned over to the firemen. Tonight (Tuesday) will be a wild night out with hospitality of that sort which has made West Texas famous the world over. Cisco belongs to the west. Recently its big citizen R. Q. Lee was named president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The races in which Cameron team will participate will end the convention program on Thursday. That day will be the big day for the team and all the complement of Cameron men and women here. The team bids fair to repeat its exploits of recent years in capturing honors for themselves and for Cameron "The Friendly City."

Sentiment here is that the next convention will go to the Rio Grande Valley at Harlengen. While other towns are after the convention for 1926 it is believed the honors will go the Harlengen.

Plans For Erection of New Hotel Discussed

exchange with telephone to each room. Special arrangement for ventilation for each room. The building will probably be built three stories, with foundation and wall suffivient for additional stories when required. On the ground floor there will be several stores for rent.

Several good locations are available from which selection will be made by Mr. Miller with committees approval. The entire plant and hotel furnished will cost approximately $110,000 and will be owned and operated by Mr. Miller and his wife and son. Mr. Miller and his son in the office and Mrs. Miller will see after the rooms and kitchen, making and excellent arrangement for properly looking after the entire plant, day or night by one of the family. Mr. Miller operates a very successful hotel at Hamilton, but has for a long time heard of the wonderful opening at Cameron for a modern hotel, and has made three visits here, thoroughly investigating conditions and is anxious to go into the matter now and must be advised soon in order to know where he stands.

The committee has made extensive investigations of Mr. Miller and his hotel qualifications and the reports have been of the very highest character and entirely satisfactory. The requirements of our citizens to obtain this much needed improvement are so much more reasonable that the committee hopes to find elsewhere, that they are urging the citizens to accept the terms offered now, rather than wait for more prosperous conditions and have to do much more than required by Mr. Miller. To show Mr. Miller's confidence in the matter, he agrees to put in everything that he has, being $20,000 in cash and further agreeing to mortgage his Munger place business property in Dallas which he does not want to sell at this time because of its future promise. This property on investigation, has been placed at a low figure of $10,000 present net value. Thus making in money and securities a total of $30,000 invested by Mr. Miller. Bonds executed by Miller for one half the total cost, or $55,000 at 6 per cent interest and running for a long term will be sold ,thereby leaving $35,000 of the total cost of $110,000 for local citizens to finance. The citizens are not asked to take stock for this $35,000 and thereby take their chance on a possible loss, but instead they are to loan Mr. Miller the $35,000 at 7 per cent interest with 2nd mortgage on the hotel and the Dallas property and every dollar of this $35,000 to be due before a single dollar of the $55,000 bonds is due. By this method you will note, Mr. Miller would have to loose his $20,000 in cash and also his Dallas, property, in fact everything on earth that he owns ,before a single dollar can be lost by any citizen subscribing to this loan. Had the citizens been sold stock instead of bonds, as this loan might be classed, than all loses would have been born by the citizens, in propotion but as it is Mr. Miller owns the entire plant and stands all loss. It would seem therefore, that if Mr. Miller, a Hotel man, who knows his business and wh chas made thorough and close investigation of the hotel proposition in Cameron, if he is willing to loose every dollar he has in the proposition before we can loose a dollar that it must be a very good investment. Now the question of a modern hotel for Cameron is no new question for it has bee brought before the Commercial Club for the past two years or more and finally when the Lions Club was organized here about a year ago, their very first pledge was to get this hotel for Cameron ,not because of its civic attractiveness and beauty but because of public critism of Cameron and its hotel accommodation. The time has past in any worth while town in Texas where people will stop at a hotel where modern conveniencies are not available. Talk to the first traveling man you meet and see where Cameron stands on hotel accomodations then figure how long we can stand this criticism without orreparable injury. This is no criticism of any present hotel management in Cameron, but only of the epuipment; you can not satisfy the public with your present equipment, no matter how perfect the management. It might be asked why some one with enough money don't come to Cameron and build a hotel without aid. Because with that amount of money a hotel man can get a bonus of 20 to 25 per cent of the cost of a hotel from any number of Texas towns wanting an attractive hotel from the civic improvement and advertisement point of view. The Committee has had several other propositions and they all call for a straight out gift of $22,000 to $30,000. Mr. Miller is not financially able to get out and take on one of the bonus hotel propositions and hence has to find a business proposition that appeals to him as a money maker. The details of collecting and disbursing the interests of the citizens subscriptions, will be handled through a trustee or trustees appointed by the subscribers, if they choose, otherwise trustees to be appointed by the Commercial Club.

Who Should Subscribe.

Every person or firm in Cameron having a business depending on the future welfare of the city; for a first class hotel draws the stranger of means and stops the tourist as nothing else will, thus giving them a chance to see and hear of opportunities in which, once and a while, one invests and becomes one of our citizens. For it is by a chance visit that most people have located, so why not increase the chances.

Why You Sould Subscribe.

Because it is reasonable safe and because it will put Cameron on the map. Because you will be proud of the Hotel. Because more people will stop here—and they all spend money, and any number of other reasons.

The Subscriber.

In the past, too often, some few business men have failed to do their part in meritorious public subscriptions. The fellow who has always helped on all public improvements and public subscriptions has become weary of taking all the load while the other fellow gets the benefits therefrom without paying any thing therefore the public spirited merchant and business man is getting tired of carrying this (sweater) because the "sweaters" seems to prosper on benefits brought about through the efforts of the public spirited person. Let us not discourage the public spirited, for we will grow stagnant without them; but rather let us encourage them for they are the builders of our city. Patronize them more and show by your actions that you appreciate their public spirit and encourage them on to greater and better things. By doing that you become a public spirited person youself, even if you are not able financially to make donations to merited undertakings. A modern hotel for Cameron is the biggest undertaking ever attempted here and you will again have an opportunity to note the public spirited and worth while, from the lists that will be published. Encourage them—they deserve it.

F. S. LESOVSKY,
Chairman of Joint Committees.

Blaylock Captures Bryan Walker

Sheriff Leonard L. Blaylock is being congratulated by his friends upon his successful chase and recapture of Bryan Walker who sawed his way out of the Milam county jail sometime during last Friday night.

Mary Francis, the little daughter of Sheriff Blaylock, while playing in the yard very early Saturday morning discovered four blankets tied together dangling from the up stairs cell window and told her father who immediately got busy.

By a constant manipulation of the telephone and telegraph wires he appraised officers over a large portion of Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas territory of the escape. He got on trace of the prisoner at a Milano restaurant from which Bryan Walker had phoned to his relatives in Rogers, for his wife Elois to come to Milano in a Ford Coupe which she must have done very quickly for the Sheriff found that they bought gas at Hanover but could learn nothing further until phoned by the Bryan officers that a man who was traveling in a Ford Coupe with a woman companion had asked if one must go through Houston to reach the Smackover oil fields. Sheriff Blaylock felt that he was on the trail and all day Saturday and until late that night kept the wires hot. Sunday morning Sheriff Holiday of Livingston, Polk county, phoned Sheriff Blaylock that he was holding two suspects answering to his wired description of Bryan but claimed to be from Illinois an Walker and his wife but who claimed to be from Illinois. The number on the Ford Coupe was 508,-336 which Sheriff Blaylock believed to be a Lubbock county number which had not yet been ascertained by him. A later phone message from Sheriff Holiday assured Sheriff Blaylock that the parties held were those desired so he asked their retention until he could reach Livingston.

Accompanied by Joe Sypert, Sheriff Blaylock left Cameron in a car about noon Sunday and despite muddy roads and swollen streams reached Huntsville within five hours and later Livingston. Bryan Walker had offered Sheriff Holiday twenty twenty dollar bills to release him and to say that he held the wrong man but this Sheriff could not be bought off in that way. The prisoner with his wife was brought back to Houston handcuffed and with a lead chain. At that point Constable Charles Sens of Cameron joined the party and he and Joe Sypert brought the two autos back to Cameron while Sheriff Blaylock with his two prisoners came into Cameron on the night Santa Fe where both were lodged behind the bars. The wife is charged with aiding a prisoner to escape.

Bryan Walker has a long record as a criminal and has been tried in Texas and Oklahoma courts. He has carried several aliases among them Clyde Roberts under which name he was convicted at Stillwater, Okla., for auto theft. He was identified by Rogers parties. He is now under indictment at Lubbock, here he bore the name of Frank Hill.

The felony theft and burglary charge under which he is held here grew out of the robbery of the Thorndale Mercantile Company's store on December 14, 1922. Two convictions have resulted in that case, one man having served a sentence of two years in the penitentiaray and another's case is still pending in the higher courts.

Sheriff Blaylock was at an expense of more than two hundred dollars in the recapture of Bryan Walker and his wife, Elois Walker, who are now in the Cameron jail.

RESULT OF THE TWO DAY'S MILLINARY SCHOOL

While the attendance at the millinery school, held last Friday and Saturday, was small the results were great. Every one attending same prepared to work. There were only 17 present but there were 20 hats made and three men's hats cleaned. All attending expressed themselves more than satisfied with the results they obtained and the information gained. Sorry more of our ladies did not take advantage of this opportunity.

We wish to thank the Cameron Furniture Company for the loan of chairs and tables, the Singer Representative, Mr. Mayfield, for the use of sewing machines and Mr. Tucker as representing the American Legion for the use of the hall for the two days, and any one else who in any way contributed to the success of the school.

MRS. ETTA RINGGOLD,

A partial report of the Grand Jury was filed with District Court Clerk, Penn Wolf. The Grand Jury asked for a recess until June 5, when their investigations will be resumed. Thirty one bills of indictment were returned, twenty six for felonies and five for misdemeanors.

DODGE BROTHERS DEALERS SELL GOOD USED CARS

MANY THINGS POINT TO BIGGEST MOTORING YEAR.

By Horstmann Brothers.

Predicting that this summer would witness the greatest motoring year in this section of the country, Mr. Horstmann, Cameron Firestone dealer, declared today that unprecedented interest is being displayed by the new developments in motor cars, tires and accessories. Mr. Horstmann is planning for the most prosperous business in the history of his company.

"Significant of the improvement in general business conditions," he said "is the interest that is being taken in motor transportation.

"Many new improvements and refinements in automobile construction have been made in the last year including four-wheel brakes, straight-line, eight-cylinder engines, and different types of body construction, all intended to provide the public with more economical and satisfactory motoring.

"Probably the greatest and most revolutionary change that has been made is the successful development of Balloon Tires. The great majority of motorists now realize after a year of successful tests, that Balloon tires are the greatest boon of motoring since the invention of Pneumatic tires.

"With practically all manufacturers of automobiles having Balloons as standard or optional equipment on their new models, the demand for this type of equipment is one of the brightest features or fubber industry. I find, too, that the majority of replacements are being made with Balloons.

"The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, which developed and stansarized the successful Full-Size Balloon tire, has plans under way for its biggest production. Reflecting the reasons for this are the inquiries I am receiving from local motorists for this type of equipment.

"Balloon Tires provide greater comfort, safety and economy. That's why the public is demanding them and why they will contribute a large share in making this summer the greatest motoring season."

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

Mrs. Edna W. Trigg First County Demonstration Agent In State of Texas

(By Epsie Manning in the Denton Record-Chronicle.)

The distinction of having blazed the trail in home demonstration work in Texas belongs to Mrs. Edna W. Trigg, Denton County home demonstration agent, pioneer agent in this State and for whom the position was created in Milam county 13 years ago by the United States Department of Agriculture. A little later this work was taken over and has since been sponsored by the Texas A. and M. College.

Mrs. Trigg was principal of a three-teacher rural school in Liberty when she took up the work to carry it on in connection with her duties as a teacher. She organized tomato clubs among farm women and girls all over Milam county through the co-operation of teachers in the schools of that county. Later she left the school room, where she had taught for 25 years, and gave her time exclusively to the work of educating rural women.

Made First Program.

Alone and unassisted she mapped out a program of work as the rural women's needs asserted themselves. Home economics was in its infancy—mostly theory then—and had little place for experiment in the busy farm woman's kithcen. The first project was tomato culture. One-tenth acre of land was used for growing tomatoes by some of the more ambitious clubs. Later poultry study was added and Mrs. Trigg enrolled both boys and girls in her poultry clubs. Gardening was later added.

Mrs. Trigg is now a grandmother and the oldest agent in the State. She entered the work a wife, a mother of two children and a teacher, against her family's wishes. The Ninerant schoolmaster of an earlier decade who taught the "Three R's" for his board and keep was hardly more transient and scarcely labored under greater difficulties than the early home demonstration agent, according to Mrs. Trigg, who says that she oftimes left home early Monday morning in horse and buggy conveyance and did not return until late Saturday night. Staying in the farm homes was the principal means of overcoming the opposition on the part of the farm people who were plainly resentful and antagonistic toward her first endeavors, she states. It was a needless expenditure of the county's money; women knew how to cook, grow spring gardens, raise chickens; thus argued the irate taxpayers who was fairly coerced into showing her hospitality.

Addresses Meeting.

In 1912 all county demonstration and farm agents in North, East and West Texas, some 16 in number, met in Waco to discuss the problems of the work. Mrs. Trigg, by virtue of her seniority and as a tribute to the first worker in the field, lectured to this assembly on tomato culture and gave a demonstration in the pruning of this vegetable.

The early woman's club was called the farm woman's council and served as something of a social center as well as an organization that had gardening and poultry raising as its objectives. It has since been named the home demonstration club and embraces every phase of ohme economics in its course of study. They are affiliated with the county federated clubs and in addition to their study programs they sponsor various civic and community enterprises. Some have even built club houses which function as community centers.

Mrs. Trigg has served as agent in this county for the past nine years, the second agent whom the county has maintained. There are 12 girls' clubs and 300 women enrolled in the clubs in the various communities of this county.

Mrs. Edna W. Trigg has many friends in Cameron and Milam county who are proud of her success in Home Demonstration work. Her ability and unflayging energy were simply bound to win success for her in any line of endeavor she might undertake.

The Rockdale Reporter says of her:

Many of our readers will be interested in the article to be found elsewhere in this issue concerning Mrs. Edna W. Trigg ,a former Milam county woman, but for the past nine years home demonstration agent for Denton county. The article pays Mrs. Trigg a deserved tribute. She has accomplished much in Denton county, and her friends in Matchless Milam have not forgotten, nor will they soon forget, her work in this county a decade ago. The work was new then, and exceedingly hard; and although her efforts were probably not fully appreciated, yet no doubt there are many women in Milam county today who will give Mrs. Trigg full credit for all that she tried to do for them as girls in those days.

Will the gentleman who called at my place March 22 and selected two puppies please communicate with me, as I have lost the address 51 3t
